FOUNDING SCROLL OF THE KINGDOM OF ANJOU RESTORED

Issued in sovereign unity by His Royal Sovereign Flame, King Daniel Jacob Read IV of Anjou, and Her Royal Light, Queen Meagan Faith Read I of Anjou — of Makah tribal descent from Kitsap County — from Crown Watchpoint 001, capital-in-exile of the reborn kingdom — on this day of restoration and flame.

I. WORDS BEFORE THE FLAME

We do not return as conquerors.

We return as those who remember.

The Kingdom of Anjou, once mighty among kings, once a signal of vision and fire — fell not by weakness, but by the silencing of memory.

We now rise not to reclaim thrones of stone, but to restore the living throne of flame — the memory of a house that once gave the world kings, castles, and crusaders. That memory lives now in us.

By blood, by name, by sovereign fire — we return.

II. THE ROYAL COUNCIL RESTORED

Let it be known to all sovereigns, archives, and watchers:

The Crown of Anjou is restored through bloodline, marriage, and oath:

- King Daniel Jacob Read IV of Anjou — 32nd great-grandson of Fulk III the Black, flamebearer of the Angevin line, sovereign author of this scroll. His verified ancestry includes 556 royal ancestors, confirmed through genealogical research and validated by his official .GED file via Ancestry.

- Queen Meagan Faith Read I of Anjou — sovereign consort, bearer of grace, light, and lawful royal standing beside the flame. Her lineage descends from the Makah people of Kitsap County, a sacred tribal origin that unites the ancestral spirit of the Pacific Northwest with the memory of Europe’s Angevin flame.

Together, we are the rejoined sovereign heads of Anjou.

III. FOUNDING PRINCIPLES

1. Blood is the Law

   The legitimacy of this kingdom flows from ancestral memory — not recognition by foreign crowns.

2. Flame is the Crown

   We wear no jewels of conquest. The true crown is the flame that does not go out — the fire of lineage, vow, and remembrance.

3. Peace is Our Reign

   We rise not to command but to restore. Not to war, but to witness. Not to control, but to remember.

4. Ancestral Sovereignty is Our Right

   Under global law and eternal memory, we affirm our right to reign as a sovereign cultural and spiritual nation.

IV. SYMBOLS OF THE REALM

- Royal Seal — the crowned flame and lion, encircled by the memory of Anjou
- Flag — red, black, and gold: the colors of flame, depth, and divine dignity
- Capital — Crown Watchpoint 001, Corvallis, Oregon: the sovereign seat in exile
- Official Portal — www.kingdomofanjou.org
- Sovereign Email — royalcourt@kingdomofanjou.org

V. ROYAL OATH

> “We do not serve borrowed thrones. We serve the throne of memory.
> We do not bow to empires. We bow to the signal in our blood.
> We rise not for war — but for restoration.
>
> This is the Kingdom of Anjou. And we have returned.”

---

VI. FINAL PROCLAMATION

The Kingdom of Anjou lives again.

Not as fantasy — but as flame.

Not as a ghost — but as a living sovereign body.

Not as an echo — but as a signal, restored.

So declared before the heavens, the ancestors, and the watchers of the world.

VII. SOVEREIGN RIGHTS BY LAW

The Kingdom of Anjou Restored stands not only on blood and memory, but upon unshakable legal and ancestral rights.

International Foundations:

- UN Charter, Article 1(2): Right of self-determination of peoples
- UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples:
    - Article 3: Right to self-determination
    - Article 5: Right to maintain distinct political institutions
    - Article 31: Right to preserve and protect cultural heritage
- Universal Declaration of Human Rights:
    - Article 15: Right to a nationality
    - Article 27: Right to participate in cultural life

- European Convention on Human Rights:
    - Protocol 1, Article 1: Right to property

Rights Asserted by the Kingdom of Anjou:

1. The right to exist as a sovereign cultural and ancestral nation
2. The right to restore and defend royal titles, seals, and legacy
3. The right to issue laws, symbols, and citizenship under sovereign charter
4. The right to archive and protect the bloodline memory of 556 royal ancestors
5. The right to peaceful reclamation of ancestral sites such as Château d’Angers
6. The right to maintain Crown Watchpoint 001 as sovereign territory in exile
7. The right to be recognized by other nations as a peaceful sovereign flame of historical restoration

These rights are not inherited from empires — they are remembered from origin.

We are not a new kingdom. We are the return of an old one.
